Privacy

In accordance with the relevant requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), patients are made aware that healthcare providers may collect and disclose their personal information to the NCSR. You are authorised to collect and disclose your patient's personal information under the National Cancer Screening Register Act 2016.

The NCSR is authorised to collect information about you and other healthcare providers from Services Australia and others for the purpose of verifying your identity and communicating with you. The NCSR also collects information directly from you. Your personal information may be disclosed to a range of agencies or organisations, including State and Territory Health Departments, Australian Government agencies and where you have agreed or where it is authorised or required by law or court or tribunal order.
